Amen*

Let us pray: Almighty and eternal God, regard the Heart of Thy most beloved Son and upon the praises and satisfaction which He offereth Thee in the name of sinners; and to those who implore Thy mercy, in Thy great goodness, grant forgiveness in the name of the same Jesus Christ, Thy Son, who liveth and reigneth with Thee forever and ever. Amen

ACT OF CONSECRATION

Lord Jesus Christ, I want to give myself to you completely. When I see your Sacred Heart, I reflect upon your love. You came from the Father taking a human body with a human heart. You taught us to love God with all our hearts. You suffered and died to save us from sin and death. As you hung on the cross, your Heart was pierced by a lance. Out of it poured blood and water to signify the birth of your Church.

You rose from the death, Jesus, to live forever with your Father in Heaven. But your Heart is still full of love for us. You still feel pain when people reject or ignore your love. You want us all to live forever with God.

I now consecrate myself to your Sacred Heart, Jesus. You are the Son of God whom I love with all my heart. I offer you my body, my soul, my mind, and my heart. Receive me, make me holy, make my heart like your Heart, and guide me in the way of perfect love today and every day of my life. Amen.

ACT OF REPARATION TO THE SACRED HEART

O sweetest Jesus, Thou dost pour forth Thy love abundantly on men, while they repay Thee most ungratefully with neglect, indifference, and contempt. Behold us humbly kneeling before Thine altar; we would fain repair this heartless ingratitude on the part of men, and the manifold injuries that are everywhere done to Thy most loving Heart, by a special act of homage.

Yet we are not unmindful that we, too, have had our part in this unworthy behavior; therefore are we moved to deep contrition, and, above all, we beg Thy mercy for ourselves; we are ready to atone, by this voluntary act of expiation, for the crimes which we ourselves have committed, as also for the sins of those who, straying far from the way of salvation, either refuse, in the blindness of their unbelief, to follow Thee, the Shepherd and Guide of their souls, or who trample upon the vows of their baptism and shake off the yoke of Thy law.

Not only are we anxious to expiate all these deplorable crimes, but in an especial manner do we purpose to make reparation for these following: immodesty and shameful excesses in life and dress; the many snares of corruption laid for the souls of the innocent; the neglect of holy days; the hateful blasphemies that are hurled against Thee and Thy saints; the reproaches uttered against Thy Vicar on earth and all the priestly order; the neglect, also, of the very sacrament of Thy love, as well as its profanation by horrifying sacrilege; and finally the public sins of the nations in rebellion against the just rights and the teaching authority of the Church established by Thee.

Would that we were able to atone for all these outrages even to the shedding of our blood! Meanwhile, in order to atone for the violations of the honor due to Thee, we offer unto Thee that selfsame satisfaction which of old Thou didst offer the Father upon the Holy Cross and which from day to day Thou dost continually renew upon the altars of Thy Church. To this we add expiatory merits of Thy Virgin Mother, of all Thy saints, and of the devout faithful upon earth. With all our hearts we promise to atone, Thy grace assisting us, for our own past sins and those of all other men, as also for our coldness toward Thine exceeding great love, by firm faith, spotless purity of life, and the perfect fulfillment, so far as in us lies, of the law of the Gospel and in particular of the precept of charity.

We likewise pledge ourselves in accordance with our strength to prevent such injuries from being done to Thee, and to invite as many as we can to follow Thee. Accept, we pray Thee, most gracious Jesus, through the intercession of Our Lady of Reparation, this is our free offering of reparation, and be Thou pleased to keep us, by the great gift of final perseverance, faithful even unto death in our dutiful service of Thee, so that in the end we may all come to that our true native land, where Thou, with the Father and the Holy Spirit, livest and reignest for ever and ever. Amen.

Note: A partial indulgence once a month for the daily devout recitation of this prayer, on condition of confession, Communion, and a visit to some church or public oratory. (page 235 – Enthronement of the Sacred Heart of Jesus).

ACT OF THANKSGIVING

O Divine Heart of Jesus we thank Thee for Thy great grace and mercy in choosing our community to receive the legacy of Thy love by transforming it into a sanctuary of reparation and atonement.

Divine Savior, we, the least among Thy children, bow down in silent adoration before Thee.

We thank Thee for dwelling in our midst; we salute Thee, we thirst after Thee, the ever lasting Fount of living waters. Humbly we beg of Thee, "Stay with us, Lord." May this house be to Thee a second Bethany where Thou mayest rest among those who have chosen the better part.

Stay with us Lord, for as in Nazareth's lowly home, we too honor the Holy Mother Thou Thyself hast giving us. Dispel from our hearts, through Thy Holy Presence, all sorrow and discouragement.

Stay with us, for perhaps the darkness of trial is about to come upon us. Stay with us, for night cometh! The world strives to envelop us / in the shadows of unbelief, but we want to be faithful to Thee, for Thou alone art the Way, the Truth, and the Life! / O Divine Jesus, we beg Thee let Thy Word be fulfilled, "Today salvation has come to this house!"

Stay with us, O Thou our Lord and Master. Take up Thy abode with us that we may grow in Thy love. Thou art our King and we would serve Thee alone. Help us to become saints and through sanctity, spread love for Thee among all those entrusted to our care.

May the triumphant, loving Heart of Jesus, be praised, loved and glorified in this parish and our homes, now and always. Amen!
