- ~ Implementing steps to generate a comprehensive safety and security plan for the center
  - ~ Understand law enforcement capabilities in responding to incidents
  - ~ Increase safety and security of children areas
  - ~ Increase protection of congregation and staff
  - ~ Increase protection of center assets, to include visitors and money
- ~ Decrease liability exposure and address existing risks
- ~ Provide material to help manage and re-evaluate the security plan that is implemented
- ~ Provide important information and tips to visitors

Starting in September:

Mater Dei will be starting a class for converts and those recently converted. Those who are just interested in learning about the Catholic faith, but not necessarily in converting are also welcome. The class will be held on Tuesdays at 7pm. It will not replace the Adult Catechism Class, but will be meeting at the same time in a different room.

Mater Dei Dress CodeTo help facilitate the spirit of prayer and recollection, and in charity to God and neighbor, please respect the following dress code at Mater Dei:Both men and women - All dress should be clean and neat according to one's means, and modest. Casual clothes should be avoided as regular Mass attire (shorts, athletic shoes, etc.).

On weekdays, one does not have to be quite as formally dressed, and for those going to or from work, exceptions are understandable, but one's clothing should still reflect modesty and reverence.

Men - Either a button down shirt or a pullover shirt with a collar, and neat and clean pants; Men should consider wearing a tie to Church and in cooler weather, a suit coat.Women - Clothes that are not tight-fitting. No see-through or revealing material such as sheer fabric or lace as the only layer (except for head coverings of course). Modest necklines (no low-cut, plunging or deep-scoop). Shoulders covered and 1/4 length sleeves. Skirts should cover the knee when seated; no slit above the knee.

Veiling is welcomed and appreciated
