St. Joseph, husband of the Blessed Virgin Mary and foster-father of our Lord, faithfully and humbly carried out the difficult and glorious mission entrusted to him by God and thus became the model of domestic virtues and humble daily toil, the guardian of chaste souls and the protector of Christian homes. Veneration of St. Joseph is of relatively recent introduction in the Church's liturgy. This feast was fixed on March 19 in the fifteenth century and added to the general calendar of the Church in 1621. Pope John XXIII added St. Joseph's name to the Canon of the Mass in 1960, the first addition made to the Canon in over a thousand years.

Commemoration of St. Benedict, Abbot
Born in Italy in 480, Benedict's parents sent him to Rome for studies; but fleeing the city's worldliness, he sought refuge in a cave at Subiaco, where he lived for three years. The renown of his virtues soon drew people to him and he began to gather disciples; for them he founded in the mountains twelve monasteries in which was observed the monastic motto: Ora et labora, pray and work. He later founded his principal monastery at Monte-Casino and wrote his famous rule. He died March 21, 547 just after receiving Holy Communion at Mass. He is the father of western monasticism.
