TUESDAY - August 6 Transfiguration of Our Lord, II Class White (Ss. Sixtus II & Companions)

Twice in the course of the year the Church celebrates our Lord's Transfiguration on Mount Tabor – on the second Sunday of Lent in order to bear witness to His divinity as His Passion draws near, and again today to celebrate His exaltation in glory. Pope Callistus III ordered the observance of this feast for the entire Church on August 6 to commemorate the victory over the Muslim Turks near Belgrade in 1456, which was announced in Rome on this day.

 12:10p Benefit of Certain Grocery Store Owners

WEDNESDAY - August 7 - St. Cajetan, Confessor, III Class White (St. Donatus)

St. Cajetan founded the Theatines, who endeavor to follow the manner and life of the Apostles. Trusting in God, they refrained from begging alms and waited until the faithful brought them help. His zeal for the salvation of souls caused him to be called "Hunter of Souls". It was said that he was an angel at the altar and an Apostle at the pulpit. He died August 7, 1547.

6:30a Betsy Hodum
 7:00p Maria Teresa & Jose Oscar Garza

THURSDAY - August 8 - St. John Marie Vianney, Patron of Priests, Confessor, III Class White (Ss. Cyriacus, Largus & Smaragdus)

Born near Lyons, France in 1786, ordained in August 1815, St. John Vianney was parish priest at Ars for nearly 42 years. His simple preaching touched the hearts of both young and old. Crowds flocked to the holy priest, who sat some days up to 16 hours in the confessional. Through his prayers, penances, and long years as pastor, he managed to revitalize a parish that had been morally and spiritually corrupt when he took over. He died in 1859.

SATURDAY - August 10 - St. Lawrence, Deacon & Martyr, II Class Red

St. Lawrence was the first of seven deacons attached to the service of the Church in Rome under Sixtus II. When he was called to deliver up the property of the Church in his charge, he showed to his persecutors a crowd of poor people. "Here are the true treasures of the Church," he said, "they convert our alms into imperishable treasure for us." As a reward for his daring he was made to undergo torture on the grill and died on August 10, 258, a few days after the Pope.
