MONDAY, September 30 (White) St. Jerome, Confessor/Doctor, III Class

St. Jerome, in search for a perfect form of life, lived for a time as a hermit in the Syrian desert, giving himself up to severe mortification and meditation on Scripture. He is best known for his translation of the Bible and establishing the Latin translation known as the Vulgate, which the Church adopted as her official version. His great learning, commentaries on Scripture, and zeal against the heresies of the time earned him the title of Doctor of the Church.

TUESDAY, October 1 (Green) Feria, IV Class

6:30a Monica Manzano

WEDNESDAY, October 2 (White) Holy Guardian Angels, III Class

Jacob's vision of a ladder reaching up to heaven with the angels ascending and descending signifies the role of angels to come down to earth to protect us and ascend back to heaven to sing the praises of God. The book of Tobias also shows the angels' commissioned care over us in the figure of St. Raphael. The general opinion of theologians is that everyone has a special guardian angel who watches over him throughout life, suggesting good thoughts to our minds, moving our will to seek what is good, and also protecting us from danger.

7:00p Katie Blizzard

THURSDAY, October 3 (White) St. Therese of the Child Jesus, Virgin/Doctor, III Class

Having entered the Carmel cloister at Lisieux by special permission at fifteen, she desired by her mortification and self-denial, especially in the little things, to help priests, missionaries, and the whole Church. Her short and simple life was an example of heroic courage and generosity. Her autobiography teaches the way of spiritual childhood. She died on Sept. 30, 1897, canonized by Pius XI, and proclaimed doctor by Paul VI.

FRIDAY, October 4 (White) St. Francis of Assisi, Confessor, III Class

Son of a rich merchant, St. Francis gave up all his possessions to espouse his "Lady Poverty", taking the Gospel literally, to embrace a life of evangelical poverty in total destitution but also in the perfect joy of a soul set free. Many others would join him to which he gave a Rule, and then founded with St. Clare the order for women; in 1221, he established a Third Order for the lay, which exerted considerable influence in effecting a renewal of the Christian life among all classes. Granted the gift of the Stigmata, he died on October 4, 1226, his soul being seen as a flash of light ascending to heaven.
