NO Confessions on Wednesdays

Thursday, Oct. 15, White-St. Teresa of Avila, Virgin, III Class

Born in Avila, Spain, she entered the local Carmelites at eighteen and, after many difficulties, succeeded in reforming the convent. With the help of St. John of the Cross, she would reform most of the convents of the Carmelite order and found many new ones. In meditation, she was one of only a few saints to reach the highest degree of mysticism. Her writings on the spiritual life have been revered through the ages and she would be proclaimed a doctor of the Church by Paul VI. She died in 1582.
