The third successor of St. Peter, he governed the Church from A.D. 88 to 97. He is listed in the canon of the Mass and is an author of a pastoral letter to the Corinthians, one of the oldest extant documents of the Church, which is imbued throughout with a great love of Christian unity.

Tuesday, Nov. 24, White—St. John of the Cross, Confessor & Doctor, III Class (St. Chrysogonus)

One of the greatest masters of the spiritual life, he entered the Carmelites in Salamanca and collaborated with St. Teresa of Avila in the reform of the order. He was a man of complete self-renunciation with a great love of the Cross, making of austerity the indispensable condition of a life given to prayer. His mystical writings have earned him the title of Doctor of the contemplative life. He died in 1591 and proclaimed Doctor in 1926.

Wednesday, Nov 25, Red - St. Catherine of Alexandria, Virgin & Martyr, III Class

St. Catherine had been venerated at the monastery on Mt. Sinai when, in the fifteenth century, the monks discovered her body. She is the patron of philosophers.

Born of noble parents, when present one day at the funeral of an illustrious man, a relative of his, he was struck by the hideous appearance of the body of one who had been so handsome. He left all and retired to the desert where he practiced penance and meditation and eventually founded the Congregation of the Sylvestrines under the Benedictine rule. He died at ninety years of age in 1267.
