Monday, December 21, Red– St. Thomas, Apostle, II Class

St. Thomas, the Apostle who at first did not believe, has become for the Church one of the first witnesses to her Faith. She is fond of appealing to his testimony and frequently puts in our mouths at the Elevation of the Host those simple words whereby he expressed the fervor of his regained faith: Dominus meus et Deus meus, “My Lord and my God.” It is known that he preached the Gospel in Asia beyond the frontiers of the Roman Empire, most likely in India.

Friday, December 25, White-Nativity of Our Lord, I Class

Today the Church celebrates the Birth of the Word of God according to the flesh. In relatively recent times, the three Masses on Christmas have symbolized respectively Christ’s human birth from a Virgin, His spiritual birth in our souls, and His eternal birth from the Father. This feast may have been instituted at this date to replace a pagan feast which honored the Sun.

Saturday, December 26, Red—St. Stephen, Deacon & Protomartyr, II Class (Day within the Octave of the Nativity)

St. Stephen received the commission from the Apostles to gather food for the poor. The judges accused him before the Sanhedrin, being amazed at his wonderful miracles. St. Stephen was the first to give up his life for our Lord and is recognized as the Protomartyr. In imitation of his Master, he died praying for those who stoned him.

Feast of St. John wine blessing

The Church has a special blessing for wine on December 27, the feast of St. John the Evangelist. Tradition tells us that there was an attempt on the life of St. John the Evangelist by poisoning. He blessed the cup and the poison crawled out in the form of a serpent.

A blessing of wine will take place on Sunday, December 27, after the 7am Mass.

In order for your wine to receive this special blessing, bring the wine, placed in a box(es) with your last name on it, to the St. Julie room on December 24 or 25.

You may pick up your wine on December 27.

Donations to Mater Dei Parish may be dropped off in the safe deposit drop by the Business Office or can be done online at:
