Tuesday, September 14-- Exaltation of the Holy Cross II Class, Red

This feast was originally celebrated solely to honor the anniversary of the discovery of the Cross by St. Helena and the dedication of the basilicas consecrated at Jerusalem on September 14, 335 on the sites of the Holy Sepulchre and Calvary. At a later date, however, some confusion about the object of the celebration caused the day to be regarded as the commemoration of another event – the return of the Holy Cross by the Persians in 629. It had been carried off in 614 on the occasion of a Persian victory and brought back in triumph by the Emperor Heraclius who had defeated the Persian armies

Wednesday, September 15– Seven Sorrows of the Blessed Virgin Mary, II Class, White

The feast of our Lady's sorrows has its origin in Christian devotion which finds it fitting to associate her with the Passion of her Son. The Church, commemorating Mary's sufferings, emphasizes her great and courageous love, which caused her to be so closely associated with the work of our Redemption. By offering her Son for us, she became our Mother and we became her children.

Thursday, September 16– St. Peter Cornelius, Pope & St. Ciprian, Bishop, Martyr, III Class,, Red

Pope Cornelius, after a pontificate of two years troubled by a schism of the first anti-pope, Novatian, died in exile in 253. St. Cyprian, a former lawyer, converted and became bishop of Carthage in northern Africa. He loved the Church ardently and fought and suffered for her. In the thick of persecution he encouraged the faithful to face martyrdom and was himself beheaded in 258 on the day Pope Cornelius' relics were transferred to Rome.

Saturday, September 18 St. Joseph of Cupertino, Confessor, III Class, White

A Coventual Franciscan, he strove to remain attached to the Cross by the nails of complete poverty, heroic obedience, and angelic purity, but God, who exalts the humble, caused this lay brother to be made a priest. He wrought such miracles that he implored heaven to withdraw from him the remarkable powers which he was endowed. He died in Italy in 1663.
