St. Thomas, the Apostle who at first did not believe, has become for the Church one of the first witnesses to her Faith. She is fond of appealing to his testimony and frequently puts in our mouths at the Elevation of the Host those simple words whereby he expressed the fervor of his regained faith: Dominus meus et Deus meus, "My Lord and my God." It is known that he preached the Gospel in Asia beyond the frontiers of the Roman Empire, most likely in India.

Today the Church celebrates the Birth of the Word of God according to the flesh. In relatively recent times, the three Masses on Christmas have symbolized respectively Christ's human birth from a Virgin, His spiritual birth in our souls, and His eternal birth from the Father. This feast may have been instituted at this date to replace a pagan feast which honored the Sun.
