Born in Lisbon, Portugal, in 1196, he eventually became a Franciscan and preached throughout Portugal and Italy. Both as a theologian and preacher he fought vigorously against heresy. His preaching was inspired by a love of God and of souls and had an extraordinary power of conviction; it was filled with the penetrating power of Sacred Scripture, so much so that Pope Gregory IX hailed him a "living repository of Sacred Scripture." He died in Padua in 1231 with a reputation of great sanctity.

Thursday, June 16- Corpus Christi, I Class, White

For the feast of Corpus Christi, the Church has chosen the Thursday between the Sunday on which she speaks of God's mercy towards men and the consequent duty of fraternal charity among Christians and the second Sunday after Pentecost when she resumes the same thread of thought in the Epistle and presents in the Gospel the Kingdom of Heaven in the form of the parable of the Supper. Both the Office and Mass for the feast were composed by St. Thomas Aquinas. In them are found an expression of the very soul of the saint together with the doctrinal accuracy of the great Theologian.

Adoration in Honor of the Sacred Heart

The entire month of June gives us a special opportunity to honor the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Among other events, Mater Dei will have 120 hours of continuous Eucharistic Adoration concluding on June 24th, the feast of the Sacred Heart. Although June is the month dedicated to the Sacred Heart, the elitist culture in which we find ourselves today is content to dishonor this Heart, that has so loved men, by publicly celebrating vile perversions to His all-knowing design of human sexuality. Small wonder such effrontery associates itself with that pride which felled the once luminous Lucifer. Let us resolve instead to console the Sacred Heart, and the Immaculate Heart of His Holy Mother, with the fragrant flowers of our devoted hours. Adoration will begin at the conclusion of the 5:30 p.m. Mass on June 19, and it will continue through the week, ending with Benediction before the 6:00 p.m. sung Mass on June 24. Please sign up for adoration on the sign-up calendar to help ensure we have attendance for Our Lord at all hours of the vigil. Here is a link to the sign-up calendar: MaterDeiParish.com/Reparation
At the same time, please know that it is not necessary to sign up for a commitment in advance in order to participate in adoration at any time.
