Monday, September 12 - The Most Holy Name of Mary, III Class, White

In accordance with the Jewish custom, our Lady's parents named her eight days after her birth and were inspired to call her Mary. The feast originated in Spain and was approved by the Holy See in 1513 and extended to the universal Church in 1683 by Pope Innocent XI in thanksgiving to our Lady for the victory over the Muslim Turks on Vienna.

Wednesday, September 14 - The Exaltation of the Holy Cross, II Class, Red

This feast was originally celebrated solely to honor the anniversary of the discovery of the Cross by St. Helena and the dedication of the basilicas consecrated at Jerusalem on September 14, 335 on the sites of the Holy Sepulchre and Calvary. At a later date, however, some confusion about the object of the celebration caused the day to be regarded as the commemoration of another event – the return of the Holy Cross by the Persians in 629. It had been carried off in 614 on the occasion of a Persian victory and brought back in triumph by the Emperor Heraclius who had defeated the Persian armies.

Low Mass 8:30a Jennie, Jasmine & Jeremy Cañas

Thursday, September 15 - Seven Sorrows of the Blessed Virgin Mary, II Class, White (Comm. St. Nicomedes)

The feast of our Lady's sorrows has its origin in Christian devotion which finds it fitting to associate her with the Passion of her Son. The Church, commemorating Mary's sufferings, emphasizes her great and courageous love, which caused her to be so closely associated with the work of our Redemption. By offering her Son for us, she became our Mother and we became her children.

Pope Cornelius, after a pontificate of two years troubled by a schism of the first anti-pope, Novatian, died in exile in 253. St. Cyprian, a former lawyer, converted and became bishop of Carthage in northern Africa. He loved the Church ardently and fought and suffered for her. In the thick of persecution he encouraged the faithful to face martyrdom and was himself beheaded in 258 on the day Pope Cornelius' relics were transferred to Rome.
