One of the most famous and venerated of Roman martyrs, her body was discovered in 822 and transferred to the church that bears her name in Rome. Thursday, November 24 - St. John of the Cross, Confessor & Doctor, III Class, White

One of the greatest masters of the spiritual life, he entered the Carmelites in Salamanca and collaborated with St. Teresa of Avila in the reform of the order. He was a man of complete self-renunciation with a great love of the Cross, making of austerity the indispensable condition of a life given to prayer. His mystical writings have earned him the title of Doctor of the contemplative life. He died in 1591 and proclaimed Doctor in 1926.

St. Catherine had been venerated at the monastery on Mt. Sinai when, in the fifteenth century, the monks discovered her body. Legend has made of her a young Christian of Alexandria (Egypt) who rejected the advances of Emperor Maximinus and routed a meeting of learned men gathered together to induce her to deny Christ. She is the patron of philosophers.

Saturday, November 26 - St. Sylvester, Abbot, III Class, White

Born of noble parents, when present one day at the funeral of an illustrious man, a relative of his, he was struck by the hideous appearance of the body of one who had been so handsome. He left all and retired to the desert where he practiced penance and meditation and eventually founded the Congregation of the Sylvestrines under the Benedictine rule. He died at ninety years of age in 1267.
