He would become the Archbishop of Mainz and later martyred in 754 during the last of his missionary journeys.

Appointed Archbishop of Magdeburg, he helped St. Bernard defeat the anti-pope Anacletus. On the throne Margaret of Scotland gave an example of a mortified life and great charity in the service of the people under her rule. While inspiring her husband towards conversion, she brought up eight children with such piety that several of them led a life of high perfection. She was called the mother of orphans and the treasurer of the poor. She died June 16, 1093.

A Call from St. Vincent de Paul?

The Mater Dei St. Vincent de Paul conference is in need of additional volunteers to share the joys of increasing caseload. The seeping tentacles of inflation eventually confront every one of us, but for some it can also break the back of the last camel providing fundamental support. We are encountering more camel collapses than ever before at this time, so we need to put out the call for new volunteers to help embrace the poor in the mold of St. Vincent himself. If you feel such a calling may be on your horizon, please contact us at 903-453-5678 or at: svdp.materdei@gmail.com. At the same time, we humbly request prayers from all parishioners that God would send laborers into the vineyard, both English and Spanish speaking.

In your charity towards your fellow parishioners at Mass, please take your children out of the church if they are noisy or can’t sit still in a pew. This includes crying, babbling loudly and banging on the pews. The cry room is located in the classroom building. Thank you.

Save the date!
