Monday, September 18 - St. Joseph of Cupertino, Confessor, III Class, White

A Coventual Franciscan, he strove to remain attached to the Cross by the nails of complete poverty, heroic obedience, and angelic purity, but God, who exalts the humble, caused this lay brother to be made a priest. He wrought such miracles that he implored heaven to withdraw from him the remarkable powers which he was endowed. He died in Italy in 1663.

Thursday, September 21 - St. Matthew, Apostle, II Class, Red

St. Matthew was a tax collector for the Romans and so his profession was hateful to the Jews because it reminded them of their subjection, and he was regarded as a typical sinner by the Pharisees. Called by our Lord, he would leave all and follow Him. St. Matthew was the first to put down in writing our Lord’s teaching and the account of His life, writing his Gospel in Aramaic, the language our Lord spoke Himself. He would suffer martyrdom as did the other Apostles.
