Wednesday, July 3 - St. Irenaeus, Bishop & Martyr, III Class, Red

Born in Asia Minor around 140, he succeeded the martyred bishop, St. Pothinus, to the diocese of Lyons in 177. He reigned 25 years until he met his martyrdom under a new persecution. At the time when the Gnostic sects threatened to undermine Christianity by a perversion of Christian thought and claiming to possess a sort of secret knowledge of divine revelation, St. Irenaeus vigorously denounced all heresies and safeguarded unity of belief by laying down the doctrinal tradition of the Church.

* First Communion Changes (Fully Updated) ****

Effective July 2024:

Mater Dei will be transitioning to a two-year preparation period for First Communion.

- Those who intend to receive First Communion in 2024 should contact the office as soon as possible.
- Those who intend to receive in 2025 or 2026 will need to register between August 1 and December 13, 2024.
- Those who intend to receive in 2027 will be required to register two years in advance of the desired First Communion date.

A newly issued baptism certificate will be required for registration.

Children must be minimally age 7 and in 2nd grade by the age of reception, and families must be registered and active parishioners of at least one year.

 Email secretary@materdeiparish.com for more information.

Reception of the sacrament cannot be guaranteed for those who reside outside of the Dallas Diocese.

For families utilizing the Homeschool Preparation option, First Holy Communion at Mater Dei will be held during select Sunday 11:30am Sung Masses and select Feast Day 7pm Sung Masses.

The remaining 2024 dates for First Communion are September 29 & Friday, October 11; (Divine Maternity)

A maximum of 10 children may receive their First Communion at any given Mass.

The parish also provides a catechism class option for second-graders to enroll in from October - May, in which they receive the Sacrament on the Feast of Corpus Christi.
