Monday, September 30 - St. Jerome, Priest, Confessor & Doctor, III Class, White

St. Jerome, in search for a perfect form of life, lived for a time as a hermit in the Syrian desert, giving himself up to severe mortification and meditation on Scripture. He is best known for his translation of the Bible and establishing the Latin translation known as the Vulgate, which the Church adopted as her official version.. His great learning, commentaries on Scripture, and zeal against the heresies of the time earned him the title of Doctor of the Church.

Wednesday, October 2 - Holy Guardian Angels, III Class, White

Jacob's vision of a ladder reaching up to heaven with the angels ascending and descending signifies the role of angels to come down to earth to protect us and ascend back to heaven to sing the praises of God. The book of Tobias also shows the angels' commissioned care over us in the figure of St. Raphael. The general opinion of theologians is that everyone has a special guardian angel who watches over him throughout life, suggesting good thoughts to our minds, moving our will to seek what is good, and also protecting us from danger.

Low Mass 8:30a In Honor of, Reparation and Intention of the Immaculate Heart of Mary

Thursday, October 3 - St. Teresa of the Child Jesus, Virgin, III Class, White

Having entered the Carmel cloister at Lisieux by special permission at fifteen, she desired by her mortification and self-denial, especially in the little things, to help priests, missionaries, and the whole Church. Her short and simple life was an example of heroic courage and generosity. Her autobiography teaches the way of spiritual childhood. She died on Sept. 30, 1897, canonized by Pius XI, and proclaimed doctor by Paul VI.
