St. Nazarius, baptized by St. Linus, in his turn baptized young Celsus. They were beheaded at Milan in 68. In 395, their bodies were discovered and in the tomb of St. Nazarius was found a phial of his blood as red as if it had been shed that very day. Also remembered is Pope St. Victor I, who fixed the date of Easter as it is now, being the Sunday after the first full moon after the vernal equinox. He was martyred in 202. And also Pope St. Innocent I, a contemporary of St. Augustine and St. Jerome, who died in 417.

Thursday, July 31 - St. Ignatius Loyola, Confessor, III Class, White

Born in Loyola, Spain in 1491, he first took up a military career. A serious injury confined him to a hospital, where he began reading Scripture and the lives of the saints. His faith reawakened, he realized his divine calling, laid his sword at our Lady's feet in the Benedictine Abbey at Montserrat, and set out to establish the Society of Jesus, which was raised up by Providence to combat Protestantism and resurgent paganism. He destined his followers to a militant life and, to maintain the intense spiritual life which this required, he organized a well-organized form of government and a masterly treatise, highly approved by the Church, known as the Spiritual Exercises, which have been the means of sanctification for thousands of souls. He died in 1556.

Friday, August 1 - St. Peter in Chains, III Class, White

The Church venerates the chains that bound St. Peter while in prison, which symbolize the power of the keys by which the Church through Peter unbinds from sin. August 1 was chosen so as to substitute a solemnity in honor of the Prince of the Apostles for the pagan festival formerly kept in Rome to honor the emperor Augustus, from which the month has its name.

The Planning Committee for Fr. Cunningham & Fr. Kalinoski’s party last weekend would like to thank our wonderful parish for all their help! Many hands made light work! Thank you to all the teams that stepped up to make it a huge success, the set up and clean up teams, meat prep teams (for briskets and pulled pork), the kitchen and hall teams for managing all the food during the event, the bar team, safety team and decorating team. These large-scale events are only possible when everyone contributes their time, talents or finances. We really appreciate all you have done.
