St. Mark was a disciple of the Apostles from the outset and soon became their companion in their mission. He appears to have been associated especially with St. Peter; he acted as his interpreter and wrote down his teaching. Christian iconography represents St. Mark with a lion, occasioned by the fact that he begins his Gospel by depicting St. John the Baptist as the "voice of one crying in the wilderness."

Pursuant to Section 30.07, Penal Code (trespass by license holder with an openly carried handgun), a person licensed under Subchapter H, Chapter 411, Government Code (handgun licensing law), may not enter this property with a handgun that is carried openly.
