A note about correcting others

In cases when someone is being disruptive, too loud in the chapel, or dressed immodestly, etc., the responsibility of addressing the situation does not belong to the parishioners. This task falls to the priests and to those delegated such as the Safety Team. If there is a situation that needs immediate attention, please bring it to the attention of the Safety Team. If the situation is an ongoing concern, please notify the parish office as all matters are reviewed by the Pastor.

Media

If anyone from a media outlet approaches you at the parish, please direct them to one of the priests. It is usually not a good idea to give them any comment, as your words can easily be misused. Please remember that only the Pastor has the authority to speak for the parish and the grace of state to do so.

Mater Dei Recovery Group

If you or someone you know is struggling with addiction, compulsion, or unhealthy attachment, please reach out to us at MaterDeiRecovery@materdeiparish.com.
