Persons Requesting Assistance on Parish Property

If you encounter someone on parish property requesting money or other assistance, please notify a member of the Safety Team rather than handling the situation yourself. If no Safety Team member is available, you may provide the person with the St. Vincent de Paul Conference Help Line number (469-248-8507) for possible, non-immediate assistance. For everyone's safety and well-being, parishioners are asked not to provide cash, offer transportation, or invite the person into nonpublic areas of the parish. If anyone appears to need immediate medical attention, presents an immediate danger, or there is another emergency, call 911 and notify the Safety Team.
