Thursday, September 3 - St. Pius X, Pope & Confessor, III Class, White

Joseph Sarto was born at Riese in Venetia on June 2, 1835. He was successively curate, pastor, bishop of Mantua, patriarch of Venice, and finally elected Pope on August 4, 1903. As the chief pastor of the Church he realized to the full the value of the liturgy as the prayer of the Church and spared no effort to propagate the practice of frequent and daily Communion. In his great encyclical Pascendi, he exposed and condemned the modernist heresy with force and clarity (1907). He died August 20, 1914 and was canonized in 1954 by Pius XII.
