Persons Requesting Assistance on Parish Property

If you encounter someone on parish property requesting money or other assistance, please notify a member of the Safety Team rather than handling the situation yourself. For everyone's safety and well-being, parishioners are asked not to provide cash, offer transportation, or invite the person into nonpublic areas of the parish. If anyone appears to need immediate medical attention, presents an immediate danger, or there is another emergency, call 911 and notify the Safety Team.

Media

If anyone from a media outlet approaches you at the parish, please direct them to one of the priests. It is usually not a good idea to give them any comment, as your words can easily be misused.
