Monday, November 9 - The Dedication of the Archbasilica of the Most Holy Savior, II Class, White
The Church of the Lateran in Rome is one of the first basilicas consecrated for Christian worship under the Emperor Constantine. It was attached to the palace of the Lateran, where the Popes lived, and so it became the cathedral of the bishops of Rome and, as such, the mother church of all the churches in the world.

Confessions 6:00-7:00a
Low Mass 8:30a In Honor of St. Rita of Cascia

Tuesday, November 10 - St. Andrew Avellino, Confessor, III Class, White
St. Andrew joined the Theatines and was known for his tremendous love of the Cross. Having become the superior of the institute, he devoted all his free time to prayer and the care of souls. He died in Naples at a very advanced age in 1608, at the foot of the altar as he was about to celebrate Mass.

Wednesday, November 11 - St. Martin of Tours, Bishop & Confessor, III Class, White
Born in Pannonia, he came to Gaul (France) as a soldier. At 18, he was baptized, became a disciple of St. Hilary of Portiers, built the first monastery in Gaul, and was later made bishop of Tours, where he built another abbey. He died November 8. 397, his tomb becoming famous through many miracles and attracting large pilgrimages.
Low Mass 6:00a The Bridges Family
Low Mass 8:30a Paul Marziani (RIP)

Confessions 12:15-1:15p

Friday, November 13 - St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, Virgin, III Class, White
Foundress of the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart, she devoted herself especially to work for the unprotected young and for the Italian immigrants in the US, founding for them schools and hospitals, and became known as their Mother. She was canonized by Pius XII in 1946 who praised her as having the meekness and humility of Christ, mistrust of self which led to boundless confidence in God, an intense union with the Heart of our Lord, and a rare intensity of her interior life that matched the extreme external activity of her existence. She died December 22, 1917 and, as a naturalized American, is considered the first saint of the United States.
Low Mass 6:00a Edward C. Rhodes (RIP)
Confessions 6:00-7:00a

Announcements

Classical Saxophone Concert with Fr. O'Reilly

Fr. O'Reilly will present a classical saxophone performance on Saturday, Nov. 14th at 7:00 PM in the parish hall. He will be joined by other local musicians, including Therese Pestritto, Dr. Hyunjung Lee, Luis Canosa, Dr. Joe Duchene and Rebecca Strittmatter. A free will offering is going to be collected to benefit Mater Dei Parish. Come out and enjoy an evening of beautiful music!

Rosary Makers Class and Repair

The Rosary Makers Class and Repairs will be held November 8th, after all Masses in the St. Columban Room. No charge for repairs. Missing pieces may take longer. More Info: Rosarymakers@materdeiparish.com

Annual Little Flowers Bake Sale

The annual Little Flowers girls group Bake Sale will be Sunday, November 15, from 8am-1pm, or as long as supplies last. Stop by for homemade treats - including items for your Thanksgiving Table - and help support our girls!

Carmelite Thank You

Reverend Mother wishes to express her heartfelt gratitude, along with that of all the Sisters, to everyone who came to celebrate All Saints Day & shared a little of their lives with them last Saturday. They are keeping you and your families in their prayers and are so grateful for your prayers for them!

33-Day Consecration to Mary

November 5 is the starting date for those wishing to begin or annually renew the 33-day Consecration to Jesus through Mary that will end on December 8. The final Consecration prayer will be said after all Masses on December 8. The parish bookstore sells resources to assist you with the 33-day preparation and final Consecration prayer.

November Homeschool Mother's Meeting

The Mater Dei Homeschool Group will host its November Mother's Meeting on Monday, November 9th at 7pm in the St. Mathias room. Join us for a pleasant evening of tea-sipping and craft-making as we usher in the busy season ahead of us with a gentle night out. Dinner will be provided. Please RSVP at the link below. https://www.signupgenius.com/go/10C0544AFA72DA7FA7-67199224-november

Persons Requesting Assistance on Parish Property

If you encounter someone on parish property requesting money or other assistance, please notify a member of the Safety Team rather than handling the situation yourself. If no Safety Team member is available, you may provide the person with the St. Vincent de Paul Conference Help Line number (469-248-8507) for possible, non-immediate assistance. For everyone's safety and well-being, parishioners are asked not to provide cash, offer transportation, or invite the person into nonpublic areas of the parish. If anyone appears to need immediate medical attention, presents an immediate danger, or there is another emergency, call 911 and notify the Safety Team.

There will be no 12:15pm Mass & Confession on Monday, November 9th.

FSSP Confraternity Blessing; Nov. 8th

On November 8 after the 1:30pm Mass, all members of the Confraternity of St. Peter (FSSP) are invited to come to the communion rail in the church to recite the prayer of the Confraternity and receive a blessing.

The Confraternity of the FSSP is a sodality of members who unite themselves to the FSSP and aid in its work through prayer by committing to daily recitation of a decade of the rosary and the Confraternity prayer. For more information or to enroll in the Confraternity, obtain a brochure from the vestibule or go to https://fssp.com/confraternity-of-saint-peter/

8th Annual Christmas Market; November 22

Sunday, November 22, 2026, 8am-3pm

The Annual Christmas Market, sponsored by the parish homeschool group, features homemade items made by our homeschooled youth including some spectacular items such as:

- beeswax candles
- ornaments
- plants
- missal covers
- drawstring bags
- chapstick,
- blacksmith items
- rosaries
- wooden swords
- cotton candy, freshly made organic popcorn, cookies, pretzels
- And MORE!

We hope you take this opportunity to get some homemade treats for Thanksgiving, shop for great gifts, support the youth within our Catholic Community and also help those in need, as 10% of sales will be donated to Mater Dei's St. Vincent De Paul Group.

Cash, check, and online payments accepted by many; please note that some tables will only accept cash or check.

Knights of Columbus Meeting

The monthly Knights of Columbus meeting will be Thursday, November 12 at 7pm in the parish hall.

Seven Sisters Ministry

The Seven Sisters Apostolate is recruiting women from the parish to commit one hour per week to pray, ideally before the Blessed Sacrament at any parish for one of the Mater Dei priests, who will be assigned to you. For more information about this national apostolate go to: https://sevensistersapostolate.org/
If you are interested in joining the Mater Dei apostolate group, please contact: sevensisters@materdeiparish.com

Media

If anyone from a media outlet approaches you at the parish, please direct them to one of the priests. It is usually not a good idea to give them any comment, as your words can easily be misused. Please remember that only the Pastor has the authority to speak for the parish and the grace of state to do so.

Parish & Diocesan Information

Are you new and want to become a parishioner of Mater Dei? Contact the Parish Office to get the process started! Registration is open to those residing in the Dallas Diocese.

SACRED HEART OF JESUS DEVOTIONS

Devotions after 6pm Mass on Fridays

First Saturday Devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. We make reparation for these five types of offenses:

1. Blasphemies against her Immaculate Conception.
2. Blasphemies against her Perpetual Virginity.
3. Blasphemies against her Divine Maternity and refusals to recognize her as our Mother.
4. Blasphemies of those who publicly seek to sow in the hearts of children indifference or scorn, or even hatred of this Immaculate Mother.
5. Offenses of those who outrage her directly in her holy images.

Mass Intentions

Each family is allowed 3 Mass intentions per quarter. To request Mass intentions, please pick up envelopes in the vestibule by the entrance to the chapel on the wall rack. Dates requested are not guaranteed. Please make sure to include your email on the envelope to confirm the date and then return to the parish office.
